

English

Is open the period of acceptance of new articles proposals for the next number of the scientific journal BOLETIM DO ARQUIVO DISTRITAL DE ÉVORA, to be published in September. This magazine aims to:

- Publicize the District Archive of Évora in the national and in the other countries scientific community, aiming international recognition;
- Disseminate the initiatives relating to archives developed in or relevant to the Évora District.
- Promote the knowledge and enjoyment of the archival heritage filed in the District Archive of Évora, as well as existing in the respective geographical area of intervention, through studies on the documentation and on the local and regional history;
- Promote the archival discipline and forms of management related with the archives, regardless of their nature.

The articles must be delivered until May 31, 2015.